

100DayProject Information Meetings:

Join the exhibit artists for a conversation about The100DayProject and learn tips about starting your own project!

Kick start your creativity by attending a free information meeting! This is the last one before the launch of the Community 100DayProject.

You're invited to attend again if you've come to one before and have more questions now.

Questions? Please call Ann at 906-228-8843.

Welcome to the third issue of The100DayProject newsletter! And Happy Holidays to all of you!

A Creativity Excavation...

“Everyone is born creative; everyone is given a box of crayons in kindergarten.

Then when you hit puberty they take the crayons away and replace them with dry, uninspiring books on algebra, history, etc. Being suddenly hit years later with the 'creative bug' is just a wee voice telling you, 'I'd like my crayons back, please.'”

By Hugh MacLeod

Ignore Everybody: And 39 Other Keys to Creativity

Somewhere along the line, many of us lose touch with our creativity. There can be many reasons for that. Perhaps the flame got dampened down by an thoughtless remark made by an influential adult in our

Meeting Dates & Locations:

January 4th, Saturday:
From 1-3PM at the
Marquette Arts & Culture
Center in Marquette.

Past issues of the newsletter at:

<http://the100dayproject.com/archive/>

early life. Perhaps it was being in an educational system that didn't value or support the arts.

Whatever the reason, you have the power to reclaim your creativity by making a choice to take back your crayons.

If not now, when?

Are you an "Arter"?

If you registered to do a 100 day project as part of the upcoming Community 100DayProject, you're an Arter! "Arters" is the official name we're giving to participants in the Community-wide 100DayProject!

Registering offers many goodies! The first being by registering, you become eligible to be part of the Community-wide 100DayProject exhibit and celebration in May (details announced later)!

Secondly, by registering you'll gain access to the "virtual gallery" on our website where your project images and progress can be shared with other Arters if you choose!

And third, of course, is a subscription to this e-newsletter!

But most importantly - it's knowing you're not going it alone -- you're accompanied by a community of other Arters who are setting sail on their own journeys the same day as you.

To register simply go to www.The100DayProject to sign up. It's free and easy to do!

What are other Arters doing?

A lot of you are curious about what other Arters will be exploring in their 100 day projects. Here's a sampling of some of their project exploration or "Spine" ideas.

"I will be playing guitar for at least 10 minutes every day for 100 days." -- Lana M.

"I am going to create a photo book documenting 100 days of my life." -- Gloria A.

"I am going to create a 36" X 48" visual diary of common daily events such as eating, sleeping, etc." -- Bernard P.

"I am going to keep a sketch book to improve my drawing skills." -- Ann G.

"I am going to make handbound books for 100 days." -- Amber E.

"I will be making charms for necklaces and bracelets. During this process, I will be exploring different mediums & techniques." -- Kelly G.

"I've always wanted to sketch. This project gives me a valid reason and time to check out my abilities." -- Pamela C.

"I'll be creating 'miniatures' (i.e. table tops, shadow boxes, etc.) during the 100 days." -- Dar S.

What do you want to explore,
really explore,
for 100 days?

Want to change your project idea
after you registered?

No problem!

Simply go to the website and re-register.

Takes just a minute and your project info will be updated.

www.The100DayProject.com

Community Partners!

The100DayProject welcomes the Marquette Arts & Culture Center and The Joy Center in Ishpeming as Community Partners!

MACC and The Joy Center are supporting the Community 100DayProject and Arters in their respective communities in a variety of ways. Stay tuned for details! .

If you'd like to join us as a Community Partner, please email Ann at info@The100DayProject.com

Wishing you the warmest of Holiday Wishes!

Ann Russ & Catherine Benda
The 100DayProject Originators & Organizers

Community100DayProject Update:

Launch date is Tuesday, January 21, 2014.

To participate, register on the website at www.The100DayProject.com.

Registering early will allow us to support you in your creative journey with tips and ideas designed to inspire and help you keep momentum with your project.

There will be a Community exhibit and celebration in the summer of 2014. This exhibit is open to anyone who registered and made it through at least Day 21.

Participation is free!

Copyright © The100DayProject, All rights reserved.
Issue 3 - December 2013

Our mailing address is:
Info@The100DayProject.com

unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences